

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Fras Carress Meets Death in an Unexpected Manner.

Last Thursday afternoon Earl But-trick, Trav Adams, Harry Ragland and Fras Carress drove out to the Lehigh ranch to hunt for game. All of the boys except young Carress got out of the carriage to get some watermelons, when in some way the gun belonging to him became discharged, taking effect in his side, killing him almost instantly. The body was brought to his home on Thirteenth street where he lived with his parents.
The funeral services were held Saturday morning at the Christian church of which he was a member. The remains were taken to the cemetery under the auspices of Co. E. K. N. G.

Young Carress was an exemplary young man being active in church work.

It is not a question of profit, but how much goods we can get rid of before we move our store.

I. GOLDBERG.

A Good Showing.

We have before us the statement of the First National Bank of this city for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending September 28th, 1895. This statement is a creditable showing for this ever reliable institution, we doubt if any bank in the state can make a better showing. Depositors and all others doing business with the First National are ever easy in their minds as to the reliability of the First National. Its officers are gentlemen, capable, reliable with thorough business training.
Our citizens may well be proud of the First National as a fixed institution in the city.—Democrat.

Badly Hurt.

Last Thursday at one o'clock while Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wiens, of Inman, were crossing 2nd street on Main a fractious horse being driven by Levi Garver struck Mrs. Wiens with such force as to knock her at least ten feet badly injuring her head. She was carried to Mr. Streeter's hotel and a physician sent for. She remained in an unconscious state for several hours.
Mrs. Wiens was taken to her home Saturday morning on a cot.
Mr. and Mrs. Wiens are prosperous farmers and were in the city trading.
The accident is deplored by every one.

A Narrow Escape.

On Monday evening about 6 o'clock Mrs. A. D. Butler was driving on south Main street, her horse became frightened and ran; when in front of the Bon Ton bakery the horse ran into the carriage of Mrs. W. H. Kinney.
Both horses fell and the occupants of both carriages were thrown out. Mrs.
Butler and Miss Sweet who was in the carriage with Mrs. Kinney escaped injury, but Mrs. Kinney received some bruises about the face.

Jerry at Arlington.

The boys in the western part of the county have secured the Hon. Jerry Simpson for a rally which will be held at Arlington on Friday, Nov. 1st at 2 o'clock p. m. This will be the only opportunity of hearing Jerry this year.
Let the boys turn out and bring their republican brothers with them. Jerry will probably tell what makes corn and broom corn so cheap.

Look Out!

Wm. Mangold & Son, at No. 8 South Main, have just opened up a full line of stationery such as ink tablets, pencil tablets, pens, pencils, inks, mullage, and other things in that line too numerous to mention. We will also make a specialty of picture framing and will be as cheap as the cheapest. We will carry a full line of periodicals and paper.
We invite our friends to come and see us.

They Do.

The Hutchinson Gazette by Foster and Hutton is one of the best patronized papers of any coming to this office.
The ads are set in such style as to make them attractive and the business men of Hutchinson must surely appreciate the medium as an effective catcher of customers.—Printers' Auxiliary.

Divorce Granted.

Judge Martin, on last Friday granted to Luella Winne a divorce from Scott E. Winne. The sensational expectations did not materialize to the discomfiture of the morbid minded who had looked forward to the event with judging eyes. The plaintiff was given lodging for $1,100 and custody of the youngest of the two children.

In the Field Again.

The Dazzler Coming.

During the past five years the taste of the theatre-going public has inclined largely toward that class of entertainment known as farce comedy and no company has been more instrumental in this result than Cosgrove and Grant's comedians with their famous farcical piece called "The Dazzler." The piece, while having but little plot, is full of bright lines and clever situations, which are so admirably handled by the comedians of the company, while the pretty faces, charming costumes and nimble heels of the ladies add not a little to the evening's enjoyment. The company is a strong one, and will furnish two hours of solid fun to all who visit the opera house next Friday night, Oct.
25, 1895.
